

2nd March 2022

JOB ADVERTISEMENT

DESCRIPTION: Paray School of Nursing seeks two (2) highly organised NURSE EDUCATORS. These people will be responsible for all theoretical and clinical teaching of Nursing and Midwifery students.

DUTIES:

- Implements the curriculum
- Promotes academic and professional growth of students
- Promotes personal and professional growth and development among students and faculty.
- Engages in research
- Engages in community engagement activities

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's Degree in Nursing Education with two years clinical experience involving direct patient care.
OR
- Diploma in Nursing and Midwifery with a qualification in Education/Preceptorship with minimum of two years clinical experience involving direct patient care.
AND
- Must be a registered Nurse Midwife
- Preceptorship training will be an added advantage.
- Past experience with teaching in simulation or student clinical and supervision will be an added advantage.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- Computer literacy
- Innovative, analytic, interpretive and problem solving skills
- Able to work a flexible schedule.
- Good communication and interpersonal skills to interact with faculty, students and other hospital staff.
- Mature and decisive
- Ability to work under pressure and still produce quality work.
- Knowledge of aspects of High Education Quality Assurance in Lesotho

SALARY: Commensurate with qualification

NUMBER OF POSTS: Two (2)

Interested candidates should submit their full application package consisting of application letter, CV and certified copies of educational certificates to:

The Human Resource Office

Paray School of Nursing

P.O. Box 2

Thaba-Tseka

OR

Email to: info@parayson.ac.ls

CLOSING DATE: 10th March 2022